Sir,

In Connection with my applic: cation for house building advance, I beg to state that when the Treasury Assistan Commissioner inspected my house, my son mentioned casually a Civil Suit, to which my Contractor had recourse in order to ge his claims finally settled.. I beg to submit herewith the receipt from the Principal Munsiff's Court, which shews clearly that the claims of the Contractor have been fully satisfied..

There is therefore no kind of encum: brance on the house.. I request early orders sanctioning the advance prayed for

I beg to remain

To

Sir,

The house-building advance sanctioned to me in G.O. No.3599-601/R.F.17-98 dated 13th November 1899 will be fully paid up by the end of this month. As, on account of the insufficiency of the sum first advanced to me, my house in the Basawangudi Extension still remains in an incomplete state, I beg that you will kindly recommend a house-building advance being advanced to me for a second time under Article 136 of the Civil Account Code to enable me to complete and otherwise improve it.

My present pay is Rs.80/- and the six months pay which the Article quoted above allows me will therefore be Rs. 480/-.

I beg to remain,
